

ELIZABETH CASE.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 150.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. ANDREWS, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom the petition of Elizabeth Case was referred, concur in the report hereto annexed, made the 2d session 25th Congress, and report a bill.

DECEMBER 22, 1837.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Case, respectfully report :

That this petition was submitted to the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions of the last Congress, who made the following report thereon. This report your committee beg leave to adopt, and report a bill for her relief.

FEBRUARY 14, 1837.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Case, report :

That the petitioner is the widow of the late James Case, deceased, who, in his lifetime, was a pensioner under the act of June 7, 1832, at the rate of eighty-one dollars and sixty-six cents per annum, for five months' service as a corporal, and nineteen months as a private, in the war of the revolution ; that the said Elizabeth was married to the said James, May 29, 1778, but after "the expiration of the last period of his service ;" consequently, not within the provision of the act of July 4, 1836. The petitioner's marriage having taken place prior to the close of the revolutionary war, brings her claim within the provisions of the bill reported by this committee at the present session of Congress, further to extend the benefits of the act of July 4, 1836 ; they, therefore, are of the opinion that she is justly entitled to the relief prayed for, and report a bill granting her a pension from the death of her husband, during her natural life, at the same rate allowed to him.

ELIZABETH CASE.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 140.]

MARCH 3, 1836.

Mr. Andrews, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom the petition of Elizabeth Case was referred, consent in the report hereto annexed, made the 2d session 25th Congress, and report a bill.

December 22, 1835.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Case, respectfully report:

That this petition was submitted to the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions of the last Congress, who made the following report thereon. This report your committee beg leave to adopt, and report a bill for her relief.

FEBRUARY 14, 1836.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Case, report:

That the petitioner is the widow of the late James Case, deceased, who in his lifetime, was a pensioner under the act of June 7, 1832, at the rate of eighty-one dollars and sixty-six cents per annum, for five months' service as a corporal, and nineteen months as a private, in the war of the revolution; that the said Elizabeth was married to the said James, May 23, 1778, but after "the expiration of the last period of his service," consequently, not within the provision of the act of July 4, 1836. The petitioner's marriage having taken place prior to the close of the revolutionary war, brings her claim within the provisions of the bill reported by this committee at the present session of Congress, further to extend the benefits of the act of July 4, 1836; they therefore are of the opinion that she is justly entitled to the relief prayed for, and report a bill granting her a pension from the death of her husband, during her natural life, at the same rate allowed to him.